

Maryland State Department of Education
Division of Rehabilitation Services

Maryland High School/High Tech Program

What

The High School/High Tech (HSHT) Program helps high school students with disabilities explore careers and higher education in math, science, technology and engineering.

Details

Students in High School/High Tech programs:

- Explore careers in health, space exploration, computer sciences, biology, engineering and more
- Take field trips to local high-tech companies
- Meet with mentors
- Visit college campuses
- Learn how to connect with college disability support services
- Work in high-tech internships

Connect

Visit www.marylandhsht.org to link with hundreds of careers, education and disability support program sites. You can also find out if there is a nearby HSHT program.

Where

High School/High Tech programs are currently active in six Maryland locations. For program contact information, visit www.marylandhsht.org.

LOWER SHORE ENTERPRISES, INC.

High school sophomores and juniors with disabilities in Wicomico County public high schools can learn more about technology careers.

(over)

NATIONAL FEDERATION OF THE BLIND

Students who are blind and attend high school in Maryland can participate in the National Federation of the Blind's (NFB) Transition to Independence Club.

NORTH COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL

North County High School in Glen Burnie sophomore students with disabilities who show potential for high-tech careers and education can participate in a variety of activities.

THE YOUNG SCHOLARS PROGRAM, UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

The Young Scholars Program (YSP), part of the University of Maryland's Summer and Special Programs, offers high school juniors and seniors the opportunity to participate in a summertime, pre-college experience.

GARRETT COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Students with disabilities attending Garrett County public schools can participate in internships while learning about high-tech careers in the Western Maryland region.

UNITED CEREBRAL PALSY (UCP) OF PRINCE GEORGE'S AND MONTGOMERY COUNTIES

The High School/High Tech program developed by United Cerebral Palsy of Prince George's and Montgomery Counties has connected high school students with careers and educational opportunities for over 13 years.

High School/High Tech is funded, in part, by a grant from the U.S. Department of Labor, Office of Disability Employment Policy.

Contact Us

Division of Rehabilitation Services (DORS)

High School/High Tech Program

2301 Argonne Drive, Baltimore, MD 21218

Phone: 410-554-9385 Toll-free: 888-554-0334

E-mail: hsht@dors.state.md.us

www.dors.state.md.us

This publication is available in alternate formats. Call 410-554-9385 or e-mail dors@dors.state.md.us. 3/09/2007